

Grand Opportunities 2007

Canada's Premier Hands-on Fly Fishing Forum

- Free fly fishing seminars
- Free fly casting lessons
- BBQ steak lunch
- Used fishing equipment sale
- Fun fly fishing activities
- Manufacturer's demos
- Learn about the Grand River
- Improve your fly fishing skills
- Women's fly fishing course
- See top Canadian fly anglers

Support Grand River Conservation Projects

This event is presented by
Friends of the Grand River

June 2, 2007 at Belwood Lake Conservation Area, Fergus, Ontario

This event is brought to you by:

Friends of the Grand River

P.O. Box 271

Fergus, Ontario N1M 3E2

Experience fly fishing on the beautiful Grand River

Grand Opportunities celebrates fly fishing and the Grand River. The event is designed to help beginners better enjoy the sport through education and for veteran anglers to gather and share stories, skills and experiences.

Proceeds from this event assist habitat and access improvement projects on the Grand River. There will be opportunities for you to win great prizes and contribute to this work in fun and productive ways.

- For a complete event schedule,
- To register used equipment to sell,
- For a map to get to Belwood Lake Conservation Area,
- To register for the Women's Course please visit:

www.friendsofthegrandriver.com

Grand Opportunities will be held on:

Saturday June 2, 2007

10:00 a.m. until 4:00 p.m.

at Belwood Lake Conservation Area.

Belwood Lake Conservation Area is located on Wellington County Road 18, 4 km east of Fergus.

For more information about this facility visit:

www.grandriver.ca